Becoming a Women's College Associate provides many connections within The Women's College community and to other colleges on campus at The University of Queensland. It is great for any student who commutes to university and wants to embrace the many benefits of a residential college such as academic tutorials, mentoring and networking opportunities.

Membership to the Associate Program includes the following benefits:

Orientation Week (first semester)

- » Participation in the Orientation Week Program (includes all accommodation, meals and activities for six days with all residents and associates for first year)
- » Women's College polo shirt and cap

Facilities

- » Join College residents for lunch during the week in the Dining Hall at no additional cost
- » Opportunity to purchase dinner in the Dining Hall at an additional fee per meal
- » Access to study spaces eg. Study Hub, music room
- » 30% discount on apartment rentals (subject to availability)
- » Tennis/Basketball court access

Educational

- » Attend College-run tutorials
- » Pastoral care and academic support from staff and student leaders
- » Attend Formal Dinners (guest speakers & networking opportunities)

Ready to Lead Program

- » Opportunity to participate in a bespoke development program called 'Ready to Lead'
- » Access mentoring and internship opportunities

Social

- » Purchase tickets to Social events organised by the Student Club Executive
- » Purchase Women's College student merchandise
- » Opportunity to obtain UQ Sport gym membership at a discounted rate for Women's College students
- » Participate in community-based activities
